

TRAINING

Basic and Advanced Pain Management

Morning Flight: Foundations of Pain Management—Lecture and case studies

- Pain mechanisms and pathophysiology
- Biopsychosocial aspects of pain
- Pharmacy and non-pharmacy treatment

Afternoon flight: Practical Applications—Workshop-based

- Tapering
- Conducting difficult conversations with patients
- Comprehensive biopsychosocial aspects of pain
- Addiction basics and working with specialty providers
- Using the state's new automated prescription system (MAPS)

February 15, 2018 8:00-4:30 (Breakfast 7:30-8:00 am)

Location: Prince Conference Center
1800 E Beltline Ave SE, Grand Rapids, MI 49546

Cost: Member organizations: $100 per person
Non-members: $150 per person

Intended Audience: Primary care practice teams or individual providers, clinical and non-clinical staff (Providers, care managers, social workers, medical assistants, office managers and staff, pharmacists, behavioral health specialists)

Faculty drawn from University of Michigan and pain management providers and therapists in west Michigan

www.miccsi.org/training/upcoming-events/

Meets continuing education requirements for pain, symptom management in Michigan for 2017 license renewals
Application for CME credits has been filed with the American Academy of Family Physicians, Determination of credit is pending (Nurses in Michigan may use CME credits towards re-licensure)
MPA & NASW continuing education credits application pending