

Mi-CCSI
Center for Clinical Systems Improvement

TRAINING

Basic and Advanced Pain Management

Lecture and Case Studies

- Pain mechanisms, pathophysiology
- Basics of biopsychosocial aspects
- Pharmacy, non-pharmacy treatment

Practical Applications-Workshops

- Tapering
- Difficult conversations with patients
- Advanced biopsychosocial aspects of pain
- Addiction basics, working with specialists
- Automated prescription system (MAPS)

Locations
Friday, October 12   Grand Rapids	Saturday, October 13   Muskegon
Tuesday, October 30   New Hudson/Wixom	Tuesday, Nov 20   New Hudson/Wixom

Intended Audience

Primary care practice teams or individual providers, clinical and non-clinical staff (Providers, care managers, social workers, medical assistants, office managers and staff, pharmacists, behavioral health specialists)

Faculty

Drawn from the University of Michigan and community providers and therapists

Continuing education credits available through the AAFP, AOA (Muskegon only), NASW & MPA. More details found on our website at the below link

<https://www.miccsi.org/training/pain-management-training/>

Basic & Advanced Pain Management

Agenda

Morning
Daniel Clauw, MD Pain mechanisms and treatments
David Williams, PhD Biopsychosocial aspects of pain
James Hudson, MD, Glenn Dregansky, DO Case studies in pain management*
Scott Haga, PA-C, Claire Lee, PharmD, Susan DeVuyst-Miller, PharmD, Edward Jouney, DO Pharmacology of pain treatment*
Scott Haga, PA-C, James Hudson, MD, Phil Baty, MD, Edward Jouney, DO Panel – Approaches to tapering*
Afternoon Workshop Options (Choice of 2 workshops from the options below)
Session A Scot Haga, PA-C, Edward Jouney, DO  Basics of addiction,            interventions,            supporting patient            management in the            team*	Session B David Williams, PhD  Biopsychosocial            considerations for            care (assessments,            care planning, self-            management)	Session C LARA Staff  MAPS—Automated            Prescription            System—new            capabilities*	Session D Daniel Clauw, MD  Approaches for            Cannabinoid use to            treat pain or OUD

*Faculty may change based on availability